

From Letters and Papers, Foreign and Domestic, Henry VIII, vol. 6: 1533, edited by James Gairdner. London: Her Majesty's Stationary Office, 1882, p. 543.

29 Oct. [1533]
R. O.

1365. SIR GEORGE THROKMORTON TO CROMWELL.

Has had no answer to the letter he wrote him by the under-sheriff of Warwickshire. Wishes to know his pleasure about it. As the Parliament is prorogued, will not come to London, unless it is to speak with Cromwell. Will follow his advice to live at home, serve God, and meddle little. Has sent the money for the obligation by which he is bound for certain gentlemen concerning their knightship. Coughton, 29 Oct. Signed.

P. 1. Add. : To, &c. Mr. Thos. Cromwell, one of the King's most honourable Council.