

From Letters and Papers, Foreign and Domestic, Henry VIII, vol. 6: 1533, edited by James Gairdner. London: Her Majesty's Stationary Office, 1882, p. 57.

8 Feb. [1533]
Vesp. F. XIII 75 b. B. M.
Cranmer's Works, p. 237.

137. CRANMER TO CROMWELL.

"Maister Crumwell." Desires him to be good master to his old friend, Master Newman, in his suits. Has suits of his own to move to Cromwell at their next meeting, which he forgot when they met ; but he is so much beholden to Newman that he leaves them till another time. Chanon Rewe, in Westm., 8 Feb. Signed : Thomas electe of Cant'.
P. 1.